

The Standing Committee on Finance Forum on Finance for Nature-based Solutions (Part II) 2022

Information about the resource persons

Mr. Mrinal Kanti Tripura

Director
Maleya Foundation
Bangladesh

Mr. Mrinal Kanti Tripura, Director of Maleya Foundation and coordinator of Bangladesh Indigenous Peoples Network on Climate Change and Biodiversity (BIPNet); Steering Committee member of Eastern Himalayan Network on Climate Change (EHNCC). He is current alternate member in the Facilitative Working Group (FWG) of LCIP from Asia.

Mr. Tripura is an Indigenous person from the Chittagong Hill Tracts of Bangladesh. He belongs to the TRIPURA people. He is a Mechanical engineer by training and graduated from Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology (CUET), Bangladesh and did his MA in Applied Conflict Transformation Studies from Pannasastra University, Cambodia.

Mr. Tripura Has been attending the UNFCCC COP sessions since 2008. He also follows the Green Climate Fund (GCF) Board meetings. At national level, Maleya and BIPNet are closely engaged in policy dialogues with the relevant government agencies for policy changes. Networking with other CSOs and capacity-building of 2nd line leadership/youth. His one of the main area of interests is to analyze from conflict transformation perspective.