

Cristiana Ciaraldi Jolivet

Currently manages the Built Environment project at the World Business Council for Sustainable Development (WBCSD). She is passionate about driving transformation towards net-zero carbon, circular, healthy, inclusive, adaptive and resilient built environment through multi-sector and multi-stakeholder collaboration. Cristiana's career in sustainability started in environmental NGOs (WWF and Greenpeace) followed by many years as Environment Legal Officer and CSR Manager for Construction Industry's Trade Associations in France and Italy. Before joining the WBCSD in 2014, she worked for the Italian Government as a member of the Cabinet of the Environment Minister.

Cristiana holds a Master in European Law (University of Roma Tre) an LLM in International Environmental Law (University of Wales), and a DAS in Management of International Organization (University of Geneva).