

Framework Convention on Climate Change

Second Workshop in 2025 under the Sharm el-Sheikh Dialogue on Article 2, paragraph 1(c), of the Paris Agreement, and its complementarity with Article 9 of the Paris Agreement

Information about the resource persons

Celine Tan

Professor, University of Warwick

Celine Tan is Professor of International Economic Law at the University of Warwick. She is also the Co-Director of the Centre for Law, Regulation and Governance of the Global Economy \(GLOBE\) based at Warwick Law School. Celine is a founding member of The IEL Collective, a community for scholars and practitioners interested in critical reflection of the interactions between law and the global economy. She is currently leading a project on Climate Finance for Equitable Transitions \(CLiFT\), a multi-institutional and multi-stakeholder initiative aimed at exploring the climate finance supply chain within the context of the multilateral climate change regime, international financial architecture and the multi-layered landscape of international economic law. She is also Principal Investigator on a British-Academy-funded project on Just Energy Transition Partnerships (JETPs). She has published on issues relating to international economic law and development, sovereign debt and the global financial architecture, and sustainable development and climate finance.

Photo credit: Celine Tan