

Mr. David Callow

Director of Parks and City Greening at the City of Melbourne and has two decades of experience in Landscape Horticulture. In his role, David is responsible for the management of Melbourne's iconic parks, open spaces, streetscapes and ecosystems for current and future generations.