Elena Pereira

Senior Advisor, Climate Finance
Lead negotiator, Honduras / AILAC

Ms. Elena Pereira is a senior climate finance advisor with a Master's degree in Carbon Finance from the University of Edinburgh and a Bachelor's degree in Finance. She has over 15 years of experience in climate change, project development, international development, multilateral cooperation, and research. Throughout her career, she has worked with a wide range of stakeholders, including governments, private sector, civil society, and local communities. She has held key roles within international organizations such as GIZ and UNEP and is currently the climate finance advisor for the Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment of Honduras. In recent years, she has played a strategic role in the development of national climate policies, a green taxonomy, and adaptation strategies aligned with global climate frameworks.

As an international negotiator, Elena has led Honduras' delegation to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) and chaired the Independent Association of Latin America and the Caribbean (AILAC). Since 2021, she has served as the lead climate finance negotiator for both Honduras and AILAC, actively contributing to key climate finance negotiations, such as the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance (NCQG).

Elena currently serves as a Board Member of the Fund for responding to Loss and Damage (FRLD) and as a member of the Standing Committee on Finance (SCF), representing the Group of Latin America and the Caribbean (GRULAC). Within the SCF, she has co-facilitated the SCF Forum since 2024.
