

Mr. Carlos Bohorquez

Environmental Engineer, attached to the Medellín City Hall, Colombia. PhD in Urbanism, Geography and Endowment of Territories (France 1988). International Participation with the California OES Emergency Service, Department of State. (United States 2007). Expert in Urban Infrastructure UNDP Congo. Brazzaville. (1991). Accompaniment Swedish Mission Gaêvle. AIDS 2010.

National and international experience in sustainable construction projects; establishment of regulations, certifications and incentives (2012 2020)

Coordinator of the Commission on Technological Risk -Major Risk- in the Emergency Plan Against Covid 19, Administrative Department of Risk Management of Medellín DAGRED, management of actions to avoid the overload of health services and improvement of habitat and construction conditions in the most affected sectors of the city,

Celular phone number: +57 3117569365