

Ms. Martina Otto

Head, Cities Unit, UNEP/GlobalABC Secretariat.

Martina has over 20 years of experience in Environmental Policy and Programme Management, with a particular focus on energy and transport. In her 16 years with UN Environment, she has served in different functions out of Paris and Nairobi, now heading UN Environment's work on Cities. Before joining UN Environment, Martina worked on Trade and Environment and Economic Instruments in the Area of Environmental Protection with the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, the European Commission and the Foundation for International Environmental Law and Development. A fully qualified lawyer, specialized in environmental law (LLM from London University in International Environmental Law; Bar exam Frankfurt/Main, Germany) she also worked with a major US law firm on environmental due diligence in the context of mergers and acquisition.