Nazmeera Moola

Chief Commercial Officer, Private Markets, Ninety One

Nazmeera Moola is Chief Commercial Officer, Private Markets at Ninety One, a global asset manager with 60% of its AUM in emerging markets. She leads the firm's private markets fundraising and strategy, with a particular focus on mobilising institutional capital into emerging market companies and infrastructure.

Previously, as Chief Sustainability Officer, she worked directly with global investors to accelerate capital flows into emerging market transition-related assets. Her remit included the Emerging Africa and Asia Infrastructure Fund, which provides debt financing for infrastructure projects across Africa. Before moving into firm-wide roles, she was Head of SA Investments, covering both public and private strategies across Africa, and prior to that, Co-Head of SA & Africa Fixed Income.
