Sarah Duff

Climate Adaptation and Resilience Expert European Bank of Reconstruction and Development

Sarah Duff is a Climate Adaptation and Resilience Expert at the European Bank of Reconstruction and Development (EBRD).

As a Principal in the EBRD's Climate Strategy and Delivery Department, she works to scale up EBRD climate adaptation finance, supporting clients in assessing and managing physical climate risks, and integrating climate resilience into EBRD's projects. Sarah also currently co-chairs the Climate Adaptation Working Group of the Multilateral Development Banks, working closely with all other MDBs to harmonise approaches and deliver more together. She has around 20 years of experience in climate change, sustainability, and the environment. Before joining EBRD, Sarah worked for the European Investment Bank (EIB) as a Climate and Environmental Expert, supporting European Member States in applying EU legislation and requirements.
