Samson Mbewe
Economist and Technical Programme Manager
SouthSouthNorth (SSN)

Samson Mbewe is an Economist and Technical Programme Lead at SouthSouthNorth (SSN), with 12 years of experience in climate finance, energy transitions, adaptation, and the macroeconomic challenges of African economic development. He leads policy and research-oriented work that aligns financial flows in Africa with the Paris Agreement to advance sustainable development and poverty eradication.

Samson has actively contributed to discussions under the Sharm el-Sheikh Dialogue on Article 2, paragraph 1(c) since its inception, providing a civil society perspective on operationalising Article 2, paragraph 1(c) and its complementarity with Article 9. He engages with multilateral processes, including G20 and UNFCCC processes, advancing equitable access to climate finance and actionable pathways for sustainable development.

He collaborates with governments, financial institutions, and international organisations to translate technical insights into strategic recommendations that guide policy and investment decisions. Samson holds two Master's degrees in Applied Economics and Energy Development Studies from the University of Cape Town.
