

Yvonne Lynch

Yvonne is an urban greening and climate resilience strategist. She established and led City of Melbourne's Urban Forest and Ecology team for almost a decade, garnering multiple innovation awards locally and internationally.

Since 2018, Yvonne has worked on the development and implementation the Green Riyadh Project for the Royal Commission for Riyadh City in Saudi Arabia. Green Riyadh is the world's largest integrated green and blue infrastructure project.