

Ms. Jessica Grove-Smith

Senior Scientist and Joint Managing of the Board of Directors at the Passive House Institute.

Her areas of expertise include energy efficient building solutions around the world, climate data for energy modelling, interrelations between efficiency and renewable energies, deep energy efficiency for public indoor swimming pools, as well as Passive House training. Jessica frequently participates in conferences internationally on technical and policy related topics with regard to high performance buildings.