Switzerland

Ms. Gabriela Blatter Head of International Environment Finance at the Swiss Federal Office for the Environment. With a Master of Science in Chemistry and over a decade of work experience, she has held key roles within the Swiss Government, the Asian Development Bank, and academia.

Gabriela's expertise spans international climate finance, multilateral environmental funds, and sustainable development strategies. In her various roles she actively participates in different decision-making processes.

Since 2013, Gabriela has served as Switzerland's lead negotiator and EIG coordinator for climate finance. In 2019, she became a member of the Standing Committee on Finance and GEF Council Member. Additionally, she is one of the two co-chairs of the Sharm el-Sheikh Dialogue.

Gabriela values a scientific approach to climate finance, focusing on designing financial incentive structures—both domestically and internationally—to drive the transition toward a low-emission and climate-resilient future.

Guided by the belief that “Be the change that you wish to see in this world”, Gabriela remains dedicated to fostering collaboration, innovation, and impact in the field of international environmental finance.
