

Eduardo Calvo
Specialisation: Environmental Sciences Climate change ... Location: Lima, Peru Languages: English Spanish Slovak Czech	Environmental scientist from Comenius University, Bratislava, Slovakia. Graduate studies on Economics and Environmental Sciences. Associate Professor, San Marcos University, Lima, Peru on environmental pollution, air quality and natural resources management. Also, taught at Universidad Nacional de Ingeniería, Universidad Nacional Federico Villareal and others. Former Board Member of the Peruvian Chemical Society and the Peruvian Academy of Health. Member of the IPCC Bureau as Co-Chair of the Task Force on National Greenhouse Gas Inventories. Member of the Executive Board of the Clean Development Mechanism since 2012, elected Chair in 2016. For the executive board, reviewed renewable energy projects and methodologies. Negotiator on climate change issues since 1996 until 2016. Has chaired or co-chaired debates of groups on Bunker fuels, Impacts of Response Measures, Clean Development Mechanism and IPCC Procedures in the climate change negotiations. Reviewer of Annex I Countries National Inventories in National Communications and member of the team for the Technical Analysis of the Biennial Update Reports of Non-Annex I Countries. Trained Greenhouse Gas Inventory Experts in the sectors Industrial Processes and Products Use and Waste in Africa, Asia and Latin America and the Caribbean. Former Advisor on Environmental Issues to the National Council on Environment of Peru, the Peruvian Ministries of Agriculture, Housing, Foreign Affairs and to the National Strategic Planning Center.