

Curriculum Vitae

Tirivanhu Muhwati

Zimbabwe

Holds a Bachelors Degree in Geography and Environment; Masters in Environmental Policy and Planning and; Graduate Diploma in Meteorology.

Principal Climate Change Scientist responsible for compliance to climate change international agreements coordinating the development of Zimbabwe's UNFCCC compliance documents including Biennial Update Reports, National Communications and National Inventory Reports as well as coordinate the implementation of the phase-down and phase-out of ozone depleting substances under the Vienna Convention, Montreal Protocol and Kigali Amendment. Member of the Zimbabwe delegation to the UNFCCC COP since COP21 and part of Paris Agreement Article 6 negotiations African Group of Negotiators team. Additional accumulated expertise in climate change projects formulation and management; environmental systems analysis; climate science and sustainable development. Experience working for government in Zimbabwe, international civil service in Maldives, non-governmental sector and academia for over 15 years.