

2026 Forum of the Standing Committee on Finance

"Financing Climate Action for Water Systems and the Ocean"

Information about the resource persons

Camilla Borrevik

Camilla Borrevik,
Senior Advisor
Norwegian Ministry of Climate and Environment

Ms. Camilla Borrevik is a Senior Advisor at the Norwegian Ministry of Climate and Environment, where she works as Norway's finance negotiator in international climate negotiations.

Prior to joining the Ministry, she worked at the University of Bergen (UiB) with International Cooperation, where she helped strengthen global partnerships and science diplomacy initiatives with a focus on sustainability, climate and ocean.

Borrevik has more than a decade of experience working at the intersection of climate change, ocean, policy, diplomacy, research, partnerships, and international collaboration. Her work has spanned academia, government, the United Nations, and multilateral climate processes, including advisory roles to Pacific Islands.

Borrevik earned a Ph.D. in Social Anthropology from the University of Bergen, a master's degree in visual Culture Research from the Australian National University, and a bachelor's degree in social Anthropology from the University of Bergen