Capacity for Change

Tuesday, 25 June 2019

19:00

Club Lounge, World Conference Centre Bonn

Building on work at SB50 on capacity building and gender-responsive climate policy, the Capacity for Change networking event will celebrate capacity building initiatives under the Convention, including those to advance women's leadership in climate diplomacy.

Guests are invited to explore opportunities to share ideas for enhancing more equitable and effective information sharing, public education and capacity building. The networking reception will feature a short program, with inputs from women delegates and experts on capacity building under the Convention.
