

United Nations
Climate Change

UN Climate Summit Event on NDCs and Long-Term strategies

What Does it Take to Move the Needle?

Political, Economic and Social Tipping Points that Advance Bold Climate Action

Preliminary programme

September 22nd, 10.00-13.00

Conference Room 4

Moderator: Gonzalo Muñoz, High level Champion, Chile

1. Segment 1: Welcome, introduction and scene setting (30 minutes)

- Welcoming remarks
- Introduction to the event by H.E. Carolina Schmidt, Chilean Minister for the Environment and COP 25 President-designate
- Setting the scene: Patricia Espinosa, Executive Secretary, UNFCCC
- Setting the scene: Achim Steiner, Administrator, UNDP

2. Segment 2: Tipping points for enhanced ambition towards carbon neutrality (1 hour 45 minutes)

- Keynotes (5 min each)
 - NDC Partnership
 - Climate Neutrality Coalition
- Panel: tipping points for enhancing ambition:
 - 3 Ministers
 - 1 CEO
 - 1 Mayor
 - 1 Governor
 - Discussant: Youth Representative

United Nations
Climate Change

Preliminary questions for discussion

Political Tipping Point: Describe your role as a leader in the context of enhancing ambition in NDCs or developing a pathway towards carbon neutrality. What major obstacles did you face and how political will across other countries, regions or sectors have impacted your vision and determination?

Economic Tipping Point: What economic factors are most important for enhancing ambition in the short-term? What about the long-term? Which economic issues have been particularly sensitive and how have you tackled them?

Social Tipping Point: What advice would you provide to other leaders on galvanizing actors from different sectors for enhanced ambition in the short- and long-term? How have the voices of the civil society, youth in particular, influenced you as a leader?

3. Segment 3: Global mitigation action and sustainable development in the current state of affairs (45 minutes)

- Fireside conversation, including with the audience, between:
 - H.E. Carolina Schmidt, Chilean Minister for the Environment and COP 25 President designate
 - Patricia Espinosa, Executive Secretary, UNFCCC
 - Achim Steiner, Administrator, UNDP

4. Closing