ACE F. Points

HL - Political buy-in

- Resources
- Nat'l dialogues

- cutting cross-thematic linkages in e.g. gender-responsive ACE funding

resource-mapping & mobilization

What worked well and why?

peer-to-peer exchanges
e.g. through the Academy

through best practice sharing → effective for South-South cooperation

Inter-ministerial coordination
(e.g. Comoros)

Opportunity to
- learn from others
- understand evidence from the ground/local comm.
(ACE → policy integration)

ACE offers space for youth engagement (e.g. Youngo)

what has not worked well and why

B2

• Lack of financial resources
• Centralization needed

local - national / regional communication to be stronger

LIMITED COORDINATION AND VISIBILITY BETWEEN LOCAL, REGIONAL, AND GLOBAL LEVELS AND/OR EFFECTIVE COORDINATION

Lack of clarity / cohesion

Inclusion

Youth-friendly approaches needed.

Continuous support required for longevity

Whole society approach needed.

ACCESSIBLE METHODOLOGIES (FOR DIFFERENT GROUPS)

Exclusion of stakeholders in Policy making

FROM CONSULTATION → TO CO-CREATION

ACE coordination with Indigenous community

Communication among par. slow

Need for Targeted activities per groups

what is needed to enhance implementation (who, what, where when, how)

International

Distinguish
Outcomes/priorities

MORE TARGETED

What did not work well and why?

Avoid Duplication of Efforts between agencies

MAPPIING STAKEHOLDERS and clarify roles
TO IMPROVE COORDINATION - BELOW RELEVANT ACTORS -
AVOID DUPLICATION

Inclusion for PWD to be apart of planning

INTER-MINISTERIAL COORDINATION

Overestimation of mission vs
Capacity

Information too technical,
Should be easy
to understand for all

Support leadership of PWD needed

(Isolated efforts

INCLUSION & AVOID DISCRIMINATION = FROM CONSULTATION
TO COOPERATION

DECISION MAKERS NEED TO BE DECISION TO BE FULLY ACCEPTABLE.
