Work programme under the framework for non-market approaches referred to in Article 6, paragraph 8, of the Paris Agreement and in decision 4/CMA.3

Version 10/6/2023 21:00

---

1. The Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA) convened at this session the 3rd meeting of the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches.
2. The SBSTA welcomed:
  - (a) The views and information provided by representatives of relevant UNFCCC constituted bodies and institutional arrangements under or serving the Paris Agreement and/or the Convention at the meeting<sup>1</sup> aimed at enhancing collaboration between them and the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches;
  - (b) The broad participation of Parties and observers in the in-session workshop,<sup>2</sup> including the round-table discussions, to exchange information on non-market approaches, including best practices and lessons learned related to identifying, developing and implementing such approaches, and approaches for which financial, technology and capacity-building support may be required and the support available for them;
  - (c) The use of a spin-off group during the 3rd meeting of the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches.<sup>3</sup>
3. The SBSTA took note of:
  - (a) The technical paper<sup>4</sup> prepared by the secretariat, without formal status, on possibilities for enhancing engagement with public and private sector stakeholders at meetings of the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches;
  - (b) The update<sup>5</sup> from the secretariat on the status of the development and operationalization of the UNFCCC web-based platform for non-market approaches.
4. The SBSTA encouraged the secretariat to complete the development and operationalization of the web-based platform in time for the 4th meeting of the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches.
5. The SBSTA took note of Parties' views on the need for more time for the round-table discussions that formed part of the in-session workshop referred to in paragraph 2(b) above, and the need for more informal settings for spin-off groups for in-depth discussion and the range of possible topics for future spin-off groups, including, but not limited to:
  - (a) How to support current needs for implementing proposed non-market approaches;
  - (b) Scope of and criteria for non-market approaches;
  - (c) Barriers to non-market approaches and best practices for overcoming them;
  - (d) Additional focus areas.
6. The SBSTA invited Parties and observers to submit via the submission portal<sup>6</sup> by 18 August 2023 views and information on the key elements of the framework for non-market approaches referred to in Article 6, paragraph 9, of the Paris Agreement, including:
  - (a) Prioritized elements for the implementation of the framework for non-market approaches with clear activities and timeline;

- (b) Scope of and criteria for non-market approaches;
- (c) Development of a readiness programme to support Parties in developing non-market approaches;
- (d) Guidelines to facilitate implementation of non-market approaches;
- (e) Possible themes for the next in-session workshop on non-market approaches;
- (f) The round table referred to in paragraph 7(c) below;
- (g) Areas of work and topics for engagement with relevant constituted bodies and institutional arrangements under or serving the Paris Agreement and/or Convention, referred to in decision 8/CMA.4, paragraph 18.

7. The SBSTA requested the secretariat to:

(a) Prepare a synthesis report on the basis of the submissions referred to in paragraph 6 above for consideration by the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches at its 4th meeting;

(b) Organize an intersessional hybrid workshop, ensuring broad participation of relevant experts, public and private sector stakeholders and civil society organizations, on:

(i) Progress in the design of the UNFCCC web-based platform for non-market approaches;

(ii) Enhancing networking and collaboration between the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches and relevant constituted bodies and institutional arrangements under or serving the Paris Agreement and/or the Convention;

(c) Organize a round table, to be held in conjunction with the 4th meeting of the Glasgow Committee on Non-market Approaches, with a view to matching proposals for non-market approaches on the Joint Mitigation and Adaptation Approach for the Integral and Sustainable Management of Forests in the Amazon region with available financial, technology and capacity-building support, in the context of implementing Article 5 of the Paris Agreement and decision 16/CP.21, ensuring broad participation of representatives of the public and private sector stakeholders, including technical experts, businesses, civil society organizations, and financial institutions.

8. The SBSTA took note of the estimated budgetary implications of the activities to be undertaken by the secretariat referred to in paragraphs 6 and 7 above.

9. The SBSTA requested that the actions of the secretariat called for in these conclusions be undertaken subject to the availability of financial resources.
