16.00 – 16.45 When the Skies Run Dry Action Hub

The new film "When skies ran dry," produced by Dr. Patrick Augenstein, responds to the following questions: How can we more actively prepare for drought on a planet more radically altered by humans than ever before? What's causing drought in the Anthropocene and how do we address the risks and challenges it brings?

17.00 – 17.45 Are Universities Teaching the Future? Action Hub

Representing more than 4.5 million students worldwide, networks and institutions of higher and further education have joined forces and signed the Global Climate Letter that is being presented at #COP25.

UNFCCC Capacity-building Hub events

08.30 – 20.00 Local Governments and Cities Day Capacity-building Hub

Established at COP 24, the Capacity-building Hub in Hall 4 provides a space for representation, collaboration, and knowledge sharing for actors involved in capacity-building for climate change mitigation and adaptation. Seven thematic days give many examples of working together for higher ambition and greater action.

Under the overarching notion of 'enabling local action', Local Governments and Cities Day, led by UN-Habitat and ICLEI, is designed to strengthen networks and partnerships between individuals, institutions and cities invested in building effective urban and local government climate action capacity.

Survey on the Quality of Conference Services at UNFCCC Sessions (External Client Survey)

The secretariat is committed to providing high-quality conference services that fulfil the demands and requirements of UNFCCC sessions. To help determine the extent to which the secretariat is able to respond to your needs and to further improve the quality of conference services provided, the secretariat has launched a client survey for the United Nations Climate Change Conference 2019 (COP 25).

We would like to ask for your feedback on the services provided at COP 25 by completing the online survey available here: <https://www.surveymonkey.de/r/unfcccMadrid2019>.

It is estimated that participating in the survey should only take around 10 minutes of your time. For your convenience, the survey will be available online until 31 December 2019.
