Open Meetings

Special meetings and events

10.00 – 12.30 The Climate Action for Jobs initiative Torres del Paine

At the United Nations Climate Action Summit 2019, some 46 countries made commitments to support a just ecological transition. The Climate Action for Jobs initiative follows up on this initiative and provides a roadmap to boost climate action, ensuring that people's jobs and well-being are at the center of the transition to a carbon-neutral and climate-resilient economy. The event is organized by Spain and will present the Climate Action for Jobs Initiative as well as a presentation of the Just Transition Strategy in Spain.

Key speakers at the session include, the United Nations Secretary-General, António Guterres, the High-Level Champion of Chile, Gonzalo Muñoz, Spanish Minister for the Ecological Transition, Teresa Ribera, and Spanish Minister of Labour, Migration and Social Security, Magdalena Valerio among others.

11.00 – 12.15 UN Heads of Organizations Leadership Dialogue:
Turning the tide on deforestation Meeting Room 25

Join the Heads of UN Organizations to discuss how, together, we can turn the tide on deforestation. They will be engaging in an interactive Leadership Dialogue to articulate solutions for the achievement of zero net deforestation. Participating organizations: UNFCCC, UN DESA, UNEP, FAO, UNDP, UNCCD and GEF. Meeting is open to all Parties and observers.

12.00 – 13.00 Briefing of the Special Envoy for the 2019 Climate
Action Summit on outcomes of the Summit Meeting Room 13

Global Climate Action events

11.30 – 13.00 Enhancing resource efficiency and reducing material footprint to meet climate commitments San Pedro de Atacama

Hosted by the One Planet Network, International Resource Panel and UNFCCC. Speakers at this event will demonstrate the contribution of increased resource efficiency to climate mitigation and the importance of applying resource efficiency policies and strategies to achieve the Paris Agreement goals. It will showcase the scientific evidence, as well as policies and actions taken to decrease the material footprint of the economy while also accelerating the reduction of GHG emissions.

16.00 – 17.30 High-level intergenerational Dialogue on Youth
and NDCs Meeting Room 27

An intergenerational discussion between youth delegates and policy-makers on the importance of including youth perspectives in the design of NDCs. This event will look at the challenges and opportunities for enhancing the voice of youth, and in particular the challenges that young people from developing countries face when participating in multilateral processes.

Action Hub events

10.00 – 10.45 Climate Neutral Now Special Event Action Hub

This event will recognize efforts by companies that are achieving real results in transitioning to climate neutrality. This event will showcase the four winning projects of the 2019 UN Global Climate Action Awards, under the Climate Neutral Now focus area.

11.00 – 11.45 Achieving Climate Justice Through Education:
Young Climathon in Chile Action Hub

In the middle of the recent Chilean social movement, a team of experts immersed in the social and ecological problems of Linares, one of the poorest cities in the country. The session will show the outputs of this work, how climate injustice can be addressed from below, and how the creative power of the new generations can contribute to the solution.

12.00 – 12.45 Bringing People Together for Climate:
The Role of the Events Industry Action Hub

Events contribute significantly to global GHG emissions, but without getting people together across the world, progress on climate action – and almost any other human activity – is not possible. So, how do we make events more sustainable?

15.00 – 15.45 Courage and Commitment for the Climate – Surfing,
Sustainability, and UNFCCC Sports for Climate Action Action Hub

This event will propose an engaging discussion and description of the importance of the climate on our ocean, the impacts on surfing, and the World Surf League's initiative to go carbon neutral as part of the UN Sports for Climate Action framework.

16.00 – 16.45 Q&A session on the Regional Climate Weeks Action Hub

This event is meant to provide a space for the audience to ask questions and information about the Regional Climate Weeks in Africa, Latin-America and the Caribbean (LAC), Asia-Pacific, and the Middle East and North Africa (MENA).

17.00 – 17.45 The 2051 Munich Climate Conference Action Hub

The event organized by theater-makers will propose a journey through time. A fictional situation is set to look back from the year 2051 on the time when the Paris Agreement took effect. The event aims to understand and promote science and decision making in a future past: today.

Survey on the Quality of Conference Services at UNFCCC Sessions (External Client Survey)

The secretariat is committed to providing high-quality conference services that fulfil the demands and requirements of UNFCCC sessions. To help determine the extent to which the secretariat is able to respond to your needs and to further improve the quality of conference services provided, the secretariat has launched a client survey for the United Nations Climate Change Conference 2019 (COP 25).

We would like to ask for your feedback on the services provided at COP 25 by completing the online survey available here: <https://www.surveymonkey.de/r/unfcccMadrid2019>.

It is estimated that participating in the survey should only take around 10 minutes of your time. For your convenience, the survey will be available online until 31 December 2019.
