Global Climate Action High-Level Event:
Uniting on the Pathway to 2030 and Beyond

Plenary AI Ghafat

COP 28 Climate Change Conference participants are invited to the closing of the mandated Global Climate Action (GCA) High-Level Event with the participation of the COP 27 Presidency, COP 28 Presidency, the High-Level Champions, and other non-Party stakeholders. The closing of the GCA High-Level Event aims to explore how non-State actors are driving holistic action towards meeting the ambitions of the agenda, how the GCA agenda is contributing to tangible progress and what the plans look like to take stock of progress at a global level.

Parties, observers and other non-Party stakeholders who wish to take the floor in the event are kindly invited to send their requests to make an intervention of no longer than 3 minutes to globalclimateaction@unfccc.int by Monday, 11 December 2023 at 12.00 hrs., with the subject line: "GCA HLE Intervention." While efforts will be made to accommodate all requests, given time limitations, priority will be given to requests from Parties.

Announcements

Entering the Blue Zone

Over 110,000 participants have registered for COP 28. This may mean delays getting into the venue at peak times. Please arrive early to ensure enough time for security clearance.

Zero tolerance towards harassment

The UNFCCC secretariat and the COP 28 organizers will apply a zero-tolerance approach to any form of harassment, including sexual harassment, and will deal with such complaints promptly.

We encourage reporting of any incident either directly to any badged UN Department of Safety and Security (UNDSS) officer or by calling the United Nations Security Control Centre, which is open 24 hours a day, at +971 543 059 098 (mobile). You may also report an incident to SpeakUp@unfccc.int at any time.

Click here for further information on the Code of Conduct for UNFCCC conferences, meetings and events, which is available in English, Arabic, Chinese, French, Russian and Spanish. A learning video on the Code of Conduct can be accessed here.

Survey on the quality of conference services at UNFCCC sessions

The UNFCCC secretariat, in collaboration with the Government of the United Arab Emirates as host country, is committed to providing high-quality conference services that fulfil the demands and requirements of UNFCCC sessions. To help determine the extent to which the secretariat is able to respond to participant needs and to further improve the quality of our conference services, we have launched a survey on operational aspects of COP 28.

Please find the online survey available through this link and the QR code below:

The survey should take approximately 10 minutes to complete and will be available online until 12 January 2024.

Audio and video recordings

Please note that making audio and video recordings during open or closed official meetings is not permitted to any delegate. The secretariat provides full audio and video recordings for all official open plenary meetings in audio format and webcasts them. All webcast recordings are available on the UNFCCC website.

Submission of credentials

The final list of Parties that have submitted credentials by Saturday, 9 December 2023 is posted here.

Call for major climate action announcements: Global Climate Action

The secretariat is tracking major climate action announcements made at COP 28 – including the launch of initiatives and declarations and the reporting of progress information on existing initiatives and declarations. The announcements will be featured on the COP 28 Event page of the UNFCCC’s Global Climate Action Portal and will help inform the global climate action outcomes at COP 28. You can notify us of your announcements using this form.

The Green Zone

Please consult the UAE COP 28 website for any information on the Green Zone.

UNFCCC Archives Booth

Open every day from 09.00 to 18.00 hrs. until 12 December 2023, the booth is located in the UNFCCC Pavilion in Building 24 (B2 zone). Come enjoy the opportunity to search online through early UNFCCC archives, browse through our Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee collection and see memorabilia from early COPs. Join us on a walk-through memory lane as you watch video clips of historic moments at COP sessions and photographs of delegates at earlier COP sessions.

Dating back to INC in the early 1990s, the UNFCCC archive collections is now a world-leading resource on climate change negotiation processes and the business activities and legacy of the UNFCCC. The archives comprise of a plethora of paper files, audio-visual recordings, photographs, and digital materials. Did you know that a secretariat project is now underway to preserve these invaluable records and modernize them through an online portal? Visit us to find out more!

Your interest and support will help safeguard the archives and ensure the availability, accessibility, and usability of this dynamic information asset for today’s climate change community and for future generations. We look forward to welcoming you.
