Announcements

Survey on the Quality of Conference Services at UNFCCC Sessions

The UNFCCC, in collaboration with the Government of Egypt as host country, is committed to providing high-quality conference services that fulfil the demands and requirements of UNFCCC sessions. To help determine the extent to which the secretariat is able to respond to participant needs and to further improve the quality of our conference services, we have launched a survey on operational aspects of COP 27.

Please find the online survey available through the link below:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/COP27ConferenceServices>

The survey should take approximately 10 minutes to complete and will be available online until 30 November 2022.

We appreciate your feedback!

UNFCCC Archives and History Exhibition

Please visit the first UNFCCC COP Archives and History Exhibition which is open in the Exhibits Area in Area B, section 7, throughout COP 27. At the booth you will have an opportunity to search online for early UNFCCC archives, including browsing through our Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee collection. You will enjoy seeing memorabilia from early COPs; and, from our archives, we will show video clips of historic moments at COP sessions and photographs of delegates at earlier COP sessions.

Dating back to INC in the early 1990s, UNFCCC archives' extensive collections have grown to be a world-leading resource on climate change negotiation processes and the work and legacy of the UNFCCC. The archives comprise physical paper files, audiovisual recordings, photographs and digital born materials. A secretariat project is now underway to preserve these invaluable records and to unlock access and provide our archives at your fingertips through an online portal.

Your interest and support will help safeguard the archives of UNFCCC and ensure the availability, accessibility and usability of this dynamic information asset for today's climate change community and for future generations. We look forward to meeting you at the archives exhibition booth. We are open every day from 9.30 – 18.00 hrs. during the COP and you can find us in the Exhibits Area in Area B, section 7.
