

Third Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Daouda Ndiaye

Acting Head of the Climate Change Practice, Islamic Development Bank

Daouda is a Senegalese national, with more than 20 years of professional experience including 15 years of experience in environmental and climate change adaptation projects in Africa and other regions. He is currently Acting Head of the Climate Change Practice at IsDB. Daouda is a member of the Executive Committee of the Adaptation Benefits Mechanism, chairing the Methodology Panel of the Mechanism, and is also co-chairing the joint MDB Working Group on Adaptation and Resilience.

Photo Credit: Daouda Ndiaye