

Save the climate.

To the frequent flooding that is exacerbated by declined of some of the major environmental problems due of the nature resources exploitation causing the threat on the life is experiencing human species of : " the major intense hazard on economic capacities losses of vulnerable women and men in the eastern part of DR.Congo on the effect land depletion, pollution , increasingly declined subsidence on the food security, water, stress to the disease and poverty".

Presented by

Aube Nouvelle pour la Femme et le Développement (ANFD non profit NGO).

It is a French acronym involved in field of environment management and to sustain gender in our local communities and areas .

Our organization is involved to help to meet the challenges of climate change on the program of the activities mentioned below: collaboration with the communities in the achievement of a sustainable development with participation local organizations in the country through:

- Organization of awareness-raising programs to support and promote women's adaptation capacity and livelihoods: alternative agricultural practices, access to credit, construction of shelters, socio-economic equipment, Information campaigns and press releases, exhibition to inform and train on issues of adaptation and gender equality towards vulnerable groups through the role of women, Improve women's resources through income-generating activities resilient to climate change (such as duck farming), Organization of training and or workshops as well as strengthening the capacity of women's organizations to advocate for women's rights

