WATEREVOLUTION

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Eulabor Institute is a research institute based in Italy and in the Netherlands.

We work together with industry, government and the community to create change towards sustainable futures through research and consultancy into the Sustainable Development Goals strategic framework.

Our Waterevolution model develops strategic partnerships between maritime cluster companies and marine conservation to stepping up international cooperation on climate empowerment.

LA SPEZIA

an iconic place for strategic partnership and Blue Economy models

La Spezia municipality is at the very center of:

- the waterevolution model for the Mediterranean Sea with a clear focus on research and climate change. It represents a concrete example that nature conservation and human progress are not mutually exclusive;
- the mediterranean maritime cluster system;
- one of the largest and richest natural and cultural land and sea protected area systems in Europe.

La Spezia is into the Cinque Terre land and sea protected area right in the heart of the Pelagos Sanctuary for Mediterranean Marine Mammals. The winding streets of the old town are atmospheric and there's plenty of cosy trattorias showcasing the Ligurian table at its best.

In the province of La Spezia are the famous Portovenere and the Islands (Palmaria, Tino and Tinetto), a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Also more in this area are the villages of Brugnato, Montemarcello, Tellaro and Varese Ligure, which were included in the list of the most beautiful villages in Italy. In addition, the Province of La Spezia is one of the institutions awarded with the Gold Medal for Military Valour for the sacrifices of its people and its activities in the partisan struggle during the Second World War.
