Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme on the global goal on adaptation referred to in decision 7/CMA.3

Version 10/6/2022 18:00

1. The Subsidiary Body for Scientific and Technological Advice (SBSTA) and the Subsidiary Body for Implementation (SBI), recalling decision 7/CMA.3, welcomed the first workshop under the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme on the global goal on adaptation, on enhancing understanding of the goal and reviewing progress towards it, and the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change event on the contributions of Working Group II to the Sixth Assessment Report to the work programme,¹ held at this session.
2. The SBSTA and the SBI requested that subsequent workshops under the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme be more interactive, involving breakout groups and round tables and contributions from experts, including from the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, relevant organizations and UNFCCC constituted bodies.
3. The SBSTA and the SBI endorsed the themes and sequence of the workshops for 2022 set out in the compilation and synthesis of submissions on the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme.²
4. They invited Parties and observers to submit via the submission portal³ views relating to the theme of each workshop at least four weeks prior thereto.
5. The SBSTA and the SBI requested their Chairs to ensure synergy and coherence between activities under the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme and the technical dialogue of the first global stocktake with a view to work under the programme informing the first and subsequent global stocktakes.
6. They also requested their Chairs to prepare, with the assistance of the secretariat, after each workshop an informal summary report thereon to inform subsequent workshops and relevant work of the constituted bodies.
7. They further requested the secretariat to compile, building on other relevant work, a document on metrics and indicators, including information on gaps and needs, used at the local, national, regional and global level for monitoring and assessing progress towards the global goal on adaptation.
8. The SBSTA and the SBI invited Parties and relevant organizations to hold additional hybrid workshops on topics relevant to the Glasgow–Sharm el-Sheikh work programme to support achievement of its objectives.
