

From which country are you connecting today?

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

MADAGASCAR

Many gender machineries are interested in gender and climate change but need capacity building

yes

France

Nepal

MADAGASCAR

Si

Islamin Republic of Iran

New Zealand

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Did not participate

NDC updates are an opportunity to integrate gender into climate actions

There is much interested in gender and climate change from women's groups on the ground

Great communicating with others in the region.
Networking and learning

No one size fits all

good best practice

Intercambio de experiencia y conocimientos

Coordination between gender and climate ministries produces more effective outcomes

Learn more statistically about how gender equality contributes in Climate Action

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Sounds interesting

The importance of data that is gender-sensitive. Political will from high-level decision-makers is also important.

the benefits of learning from each other, though must keep in contexts.

!#*&!$

achievable

Great- need more focus on intersectionality

Importance of be connectedCapacity BuildingImportance of remain the why and the how

Common needs about gender and climate change and colaboration

Sounds interesting

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

The benefits of creating a learning community sex-disaggregated data is essential

MOZAMBIQUE

Son excelentes. Participacion activa del rol de la mujer en las vulnerabilidades del cambio climatico

From Panama. All the incentives and new politics that includes the gender perspective.

Need for funding

Data collection and management is crucial for gender

Importance of institutional arrangements to enhance understanding and coordinate efforts

gender machineries

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Just start doing it! Cross-sectoral and intergenerational cooperation in solidarity. Build expertise.

time to accelerate

Sharing experiences, capacity building

Adapt to institutional arrangements

Having the GAP as an agreed international plan to use as a basis for national work

Implementing the GAP involves everyone

Current information

More space for female leadership in climate discussions

Incorporating gender into climate action will create a more effective and inclusive plan

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

collaborate

what is really happening in global climate efforts integrating gender for successful adaptation

Capacity building Creating consciousness linkages with internal and external structures

Development of more gender-sensitive programmes ! (Would like to hear more of particular initiatives)

NORWAY

No one size fits all.

Importance of articulate gender national policies and climate policies and mechanisms

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Land Rights

GAP as strong tool for national change

Interesting

Domestic policy and law are a foundation for advancement and engagement.

attended none

All the workshops for the promotion of the gender equality

Institutional arrangements

Potential remains high in advocating for diverse gender

Common challenge across the board

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Excellent format to share experienced

Networking and cross learning

Need for public awareness

NDC and NAP are good platforms to mainstream Gender great opportunity for engaging/networking with others

There are many ways to make efforts and initiatives towards mainstreaming gender into climate.

Capacity building in the role of gender focal point, the implementation of gender in the NDC

Challenging to look at diverse gender aspects a national structure should be created to nominate a gender focal point

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Communication intersectoral

GWNET, SE4All, CCA launching Clean Cooking Mentorship Program (GAP B,D).

(UNEP ROLAC) - Gender and CC position to mainstream gender in all the projects in the region

Collecting data to use as a basis for implementation more consultations and technical workshop with gender machineries South Centre(Switzerland)/ Integrated policy research Institute (US/Jamaica)

Trying to bring gender and climate issues in the Generation Equality Forum in France in July 2021

Establish a workplan as first step for gender mainstreaming into climate policy (European Commission)

Incorporate gender in data collection activities. GUYANA.

workshops with women's group on the ground... Integrated Policy Research Institute (IPRI, US/Jamaica)

Takeaways from the regional workshops?

Jamaica is currently implementing a project aimed at facilitating gender responsiveness approach to climate change under the GCF

Norway are working together with the other nordic countries to look into how gender could be mainstreamed into climate policies

Tools for system thinking and present a story to convince and advocate

Should be able to cross reference against other development agenda

Leadership Skills

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Mainstreaming gender in every activities

Interinstitutional coordination and coloboration

Facilitate workshop for young adults

Strengthening gender capacities for key climate change actors

Publishing 'good practice' case studies to inspire others and share lessons

Set a report table for activites undertaken by other departements

Support governments to include girls on their delegation-including funding.

We are working on the development of a National Gender Plan.

Building capacities of the key climate sectors on gender.

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Support gender transformative education creating publicity content on climate issues

Canada has organized in October 2020 a virtual capacity building workshop for women negotiators.

national consultations among main Ministries: Environment, Gender Equality and Foreign Affairs

Estamos iniciando procesos, para el plan de genero y cambio climatico adicional incluir el tema en los diferentes proyectos y programas

Argentina: Obtener datos desagregados por género, hacer diagnósticos, realizar capacitaciones

Developing Gender and Climate Change strategy and Action plan, Capacity development of women in various climate sendative sectors

!#*&!$

Developing strategy for gender mainstreaming in implementing the PA (Sweden)

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Philippines CC Commission issued resolution to mainstream gender responsive approaches in all CC activities. Focus also on evaluation and evidence - GAP A.3, D.7

Continuing working with the Gender and Climate Change table, and applying check list, to development gender sectorial analyses

Roll out training of gender integration in climate action for government officials in South Asia, East Africa, South America (ODI, CDKN-Climate & Development Knowledge Network)

Capacity Building Activities
Integration of gender in climate policies
Exchange of good practices and knowledge
Communication
More balance participation and empowerment

Workshop with Act volunteers Sweden

Walk our talk in acting on what we can do. Advocate for actions that need collaboration and continue to spread awareness.

Monitoring of gender mainstreaming in the implementation of the Madagascar ANP integrate gender in NAP process

Identifying synergies between climate change, gender and rule of law - capacity building, gender integration in disaster response and policies, legal frameworks on land rights - International Development law organization

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Risk analysis and climate change and the gender vulnerability assessment. In Panama environmental ministry

Identify entry points and priority actions to formulate concrete programs and projects under the GAP support women in all aspect to faced with disaster and managed it

Nomination of a second NGCCFP to respect gender balance

UNDP Enabling Gender-Responsive Disaster Recovery, Climate and Environmental Resilience in the Caribbean to continue work in 9 countries

Building capacities of the key climate sectors on gender integration into climate actions. Bhutan.

Giving support to gender mainstreaming in different countries and help building national and local expertise.

Strengthening capacities in climate change for key gender actors, fostering the participation of organizations led by women in climate action, improving the generation of disaggregated data and gender sector analysis.

Training workshops to empower women

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Create a gender unit to monitor gender mainstreaming at the sectoral level of the NAP Madagascar.

Develop a national GAP, training for gender mainstreaming at all level of government.

Establish a workplan setting out the climate change policies where gender will be mainstreamed (European Commission)

Expand our platform of Climate and Gender materials (EmpoderaClima)

In my contry we have developed a national and ckimate change strategy in order to achieve a balance gender. From DRC...

Colombia! gender Action PPlan, Gender and climate change in national gender policy strengthen collaboration with gender focal point

We are in the process of preparing the Gender Plan of Uruguay harmonized with the GAP of the CMUNCC

At OHCHR we hope to develop key messages on human rights, climate change and gender, and also remain available to assist States and other UN agencies in incorporating gender and human rights in climate action.

What plans do you have to implement (activities under) the GAP in 2020 and 2021?

Developing a gender responsive bilateral funding programme (Germany)

Raising awareness on gender and climate change

gender analysis in key climate action

Viet Nam is working on mainstreaming Gender into the NAP and NDC in Venezuela we are planning interministerial consultations to start with the development of our Climate Change Gender Action Plan (GAP).

Chile: gender and climate change regional workshop workshop, capacity building and rise their confidence to face disaster as a catalyst, should be a stimulus, an innovator, an initiator.

Take aways from the skills and NGCCFP role workshops?

listening skill, responsibility, flexibility, good communication, good knowledge

Networking

communication and stakeholder engagement

Flexibility is key

Communication, flexibility, mutual understanding

Countries are at very different places in implementing. Important to allocate time and resources

The gender climate tracker

Interpersonal communication

Various roles and skills depending to the context

Take aways from the skills and NGCCFP role workshops?

Good communication and advocacy skills

The strategy to expand my network to advance my work

Knowledge of the link between gender and climate change

Good knowledge on both CC and Gender, broad knowledge to connect the dots

Communication, listening, understand differential impact of climate change

stakeholder engagement

Networking skills

Cooperative networker. Eagerness and enthusiasm.

Connect international and national levels

Take aways from the skills and NGCCFP role workshops?

Skills needed to create a strong network of contacts to be aware of the developments in all climate policy fields

Negotiation skills

Leadership skills- Germany

communication

respect for diversity

Implementing the GAP

Language and communication skills are also crucial

negotiation skills

leadership

Take aways from the skills and NGCCFP role workshops?

Negotiation skills
Accessing climate finance Communication and advocacy
Leadership

Sectoral Gender Analysis, and PLans.

not only in English

Flexibility

Gender Planning, and gender budgeting

As a NGCCFP: Please share any learning or success related to your role in 2020

Want to stay informed?

Then please tell us your name and email address.