Detailed Concept Note

Building effective implementation capacity for Article 6

September 3rd 2024 (tentative), Haiti

1. Background

Article 6 of the Paris Agreement provides a framework for international cooperation to enhance ambition and action on climate change mitigation and adaptation. With this, Parties can cooperate either through market or non-market approaches to achieve their targets under the Paris agreement collaboratively. In particular, through the use of market mechanisms, Article 6 encourages greater private sector involvement and investment in low-carbon projects, helping to scale up climate finance and accelerate the transition to a sustainable, low-carbon economy.

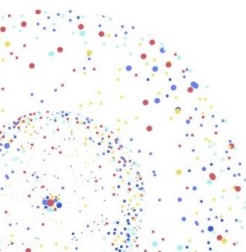

In response to a request from Haiti's UNFCCC Focal Point during a recent RCC Caribbean meeting, the RCC Caribbean proposes a webinar to provide in-depth information on Article 6 and explore potential opportunities for Haiti's engagement and participation.

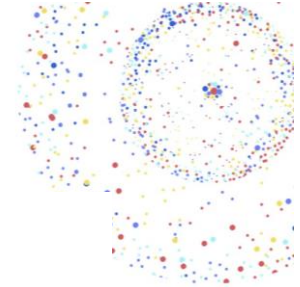

2. Main Objectives

1. Introduce the intricacies and applications of Article 6 instruments to various governmental ministries beyond the environmental sectors in Haiti.
2. Deepen the comprehension of Article 6 mechanisms, focusing on their potential utilization in national and regional contexts.
3. Equip the participants to actively evaluate and develop an implementation plan for Haiti to engage with Article 6 mechanisms.

3. Participant Profile

The workshop envisages the participation of:

- Government officials from various Ministries of Haiti
 - 1 RCC Caribbean experts.
