Thinking of institutional arrangements in the broad sense and with a focus on which departments are involved in which processes (e.g. GEF and GCF processes or consultations for policy formulation) - Can you think of examples from the region (or beyond) where institutional arrangements were conducive to gender integration in national climate policy, plans, strategies and action? Please share your experience

Status quo and plans Group 1-4

·		adjustment to institutional		Other input (e.g. NGO work, experience from other Country/ies/region	Institutional arrangements description	arrangements (reform)	Lessons learned	sectors etc.)
	Public institutions through the existence of the Ministry of Argentina	Gender Equity and the signing of international agreements. Focal Point System they are implementing. They have been	creation of the Ministry of Gender Equity	Roundtable discussions on gender and climate change.
	invited to integrate gender in different process and policies.		There are both formal institutional arragements and	The communities are working on gender diferentiated vulnerabilities
Barbados	Gender sensitive, robust policy			and ecosystem management, supported by a foundations under planetary health. Lack of leadership of New network of knowledge hub on gender.		developing countries
	The without of knowledge has on gender.		Leadership of the Goverment is key. Have	Ensure windows for financing (for example GEF) that are not related to Observatorio do Clima supports civil society, set up a working		independant funding for groups working on CC and	the goverment, particularly in countries that have difficult political Brazil	group on gender and climate change	Schoolarships for women in the south	women. We need to bring these two groups together.	contexts.
				EnGenDER Proejct Based in Barbados, coordinating work in 9 countries in the Caribbean (8 ODA eligible and Suriname) in terms of lessons, Caribbass				countries are seeing an uptick in participation with the improved
Caribbean				acceptance of virtual platforms Caribbean Community Climate Change Centre working with GCF Belize for agricultural project with gender perspective Gender integration project with GCF got improved. Would be helpful if we CARICOM/ Carlos Fuller			pandemic, there is a technology gap, participation is	have a gender specialist.
	The law on citizen participation in public service issues must	The climate change bill supports gender	mostly women, but this is affected by issues such as consult the public about any update. Citizen participation is	equality and equity with the ministry of	schedules. Promote a protocol for the participation of necessary in policy formulation	women. Due to the social crisis, society is promoting gender issues from feminist	women and gender analysis in the data. Raise a diagnosis of citizenship. Develop methodologies
	Checklist to integrate gender in CC tools - participative	movements.	diagnosis of citizensing. Develop methodologics process	L	The check list supports the identification of gaps
Chile	Gender and CC Roundtable	Participatory process of the Long Term, Climate Strategy with a gender perspective	The Roundtable allows to exchange knowledge among Cime	ochaci ana ee nounatable	omnate strategy with a gender perspective	The Roundtable allows to exchange knowledge among	EDNA - NGO supporting recyclers, achievements: national recognition of their environmental labour, civil society was important in this Colombia				process. Vulnerability of women recyclers (52%) - carrying out studies Colombia				to reduce this vulnerability. Gender Equality Seal - policy that aims to eliminate the gaps between men and women in the workplace, in which one of the key actors is the private sector as the main source of employment and national development.
	National Institute of Women (INAMU) collaborates with			This kind of practices can improve the creation and recollection of sex-
Costa Rica	UNDP			dissagregated data based on gender, for example, the Constitution of the Republic of Ecuador (2008) Republic of Ecuador (2008)
	The coorperation agreement MAE and the Gender Council.
	The agreeement is for the review of the NDC and the design and implementation of GAP. They have round table on		The equality council is the main ally of the Ministry of the Environment for mainstreaming the approach gender and CC, composed by academia and different		the Environment for mainstreaming the approach
Ecuador	international cooperation organizations		COVID is causing cuts in the budgeting
Guyana	Office of Climate Change	policy over years.	when it comes to "how to". So capacity building is important.
Grenada	Grenada recent NAP and gender policy	poney ever years.
Honduras			Data NDC Energy: gender is considered of the goverment, started work 2 years ago focusing of the CC policy at the highest level. The gender focal point and the	bringing together the gender focal point
	CC point werea ble to speak to each other thanks to a	and the climate change focal point to Jamaica	common enabling framework.	enhance work in the ministries
Jamaica	Gender Program for equality of men and women. National		frameworks and policies that serve to promote gender development plan of the country.		mainstreaming, including actions to leave no one behind. Public positions are promoted. commitment
	On issues of climate change in adaptation equality in		to address gender in BURs NCs and NDCs, participation and increase adaptive capacity.		international negotiations, Adaptation NGO offering capacity building for government		Remaining discrepancies between foreign feminist representatives in two cities to ensure that urban and	Reform of the constitution to include or	policy and domestic policy adaptation actions are gender responsive . They train women	promote painty at government levels and	Need for an inclusive consultative process for NDC
Mexico	on budgeting, implementation frameworks in regards to	integrate more women at decisive positions	·
	-	integrate more women at decisive positions such as climate change	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have climate change
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles:
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions.
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc	such as climate change	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example -	such as climate change	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc	such as climate change	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at	such as climate change	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica)
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima.
	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima.
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process,	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, GEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process,	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: -limited coordination and synergies between national institutionsgreater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, GEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based organizations are also part of the comitte, as it allows ad hoc members to join is technical expertise is required.	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, SEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based organizations are also part of the comitte, as it allows ad hoc members to join is technical expertise is required. No external incentives per se, except for that agencies can	Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous peoples	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: -limited coordination and synergies between national institutionsgreater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, GEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based organizations are also part of the comitte, as it allows ad hoc members to join is technical expertise is required.	such as climate change Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic
Panama	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, GEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based organizations are also part of the comittee, as it allows ad hoc members to join is technical expertise is required. No external incentives per se, except for that agencies can get their goals reached more efficiently through	Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous peoples Comitte coordinates Development pf NAP,	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic structure, it is necessary to approach political	Community Based Organizations participate in the commitee
Panama Peru	climate change not as a wide national strategy. Some of the projects have developed specific actions, such as active participation of women and men, youth and elderly. Obstacles: - limited coordination and synergies between national institutions greater need to include indigenous people, afrodescendants, rural comuninities, women, youth, etc Panama would like to learn fro the Costa Rica example - cooperation/exchange of knowledge Gender equality law - address gender disaggregated data at regional / territorial level Gender and climate change national action plan since 2016 with the gender department, part of the ministry of education. This committee is involved in the NDC process, GEF process as well as the NAP process. Comunity Based organizations are also part of the comitte, as it allows ad hoc members to join is technical expertise is required. No external incentives per se, except for that agencies can get their goals reached more efficiently through collaborating. Because the projects are conceptualized among several agencies, many agencies benefit from the	Integration of gender in communications under UNFCCC Platform that integrates indigenous peoples Comitte coordinates Development pf NAP, Climate Finance Strategy, development	No focus on structural points of entry, therefor they Strong need to train national authorities in the nexus Gender and Climate Change (example Jamaica) the laws. There is political provision that results from the COP in Lima. For the integration of gender in the programmatic structure, it is necessary to approach political	Community Based Organizations participate in the commitee