

Overview and assessment of climate finance flows

- Antigua & Barbuda -

Lia Nicholson | Department of Environment

'Best' Practice – Align with national development

National Climate Targets

National Development Targets

Adaptation

Sustainable Integrated Water Resources Management

Climate proofing critical services

Cross-cutting

Mainstreaming in financial flows, designing financial products

Mitigation

RE energy policy reform

Circular economy for waste

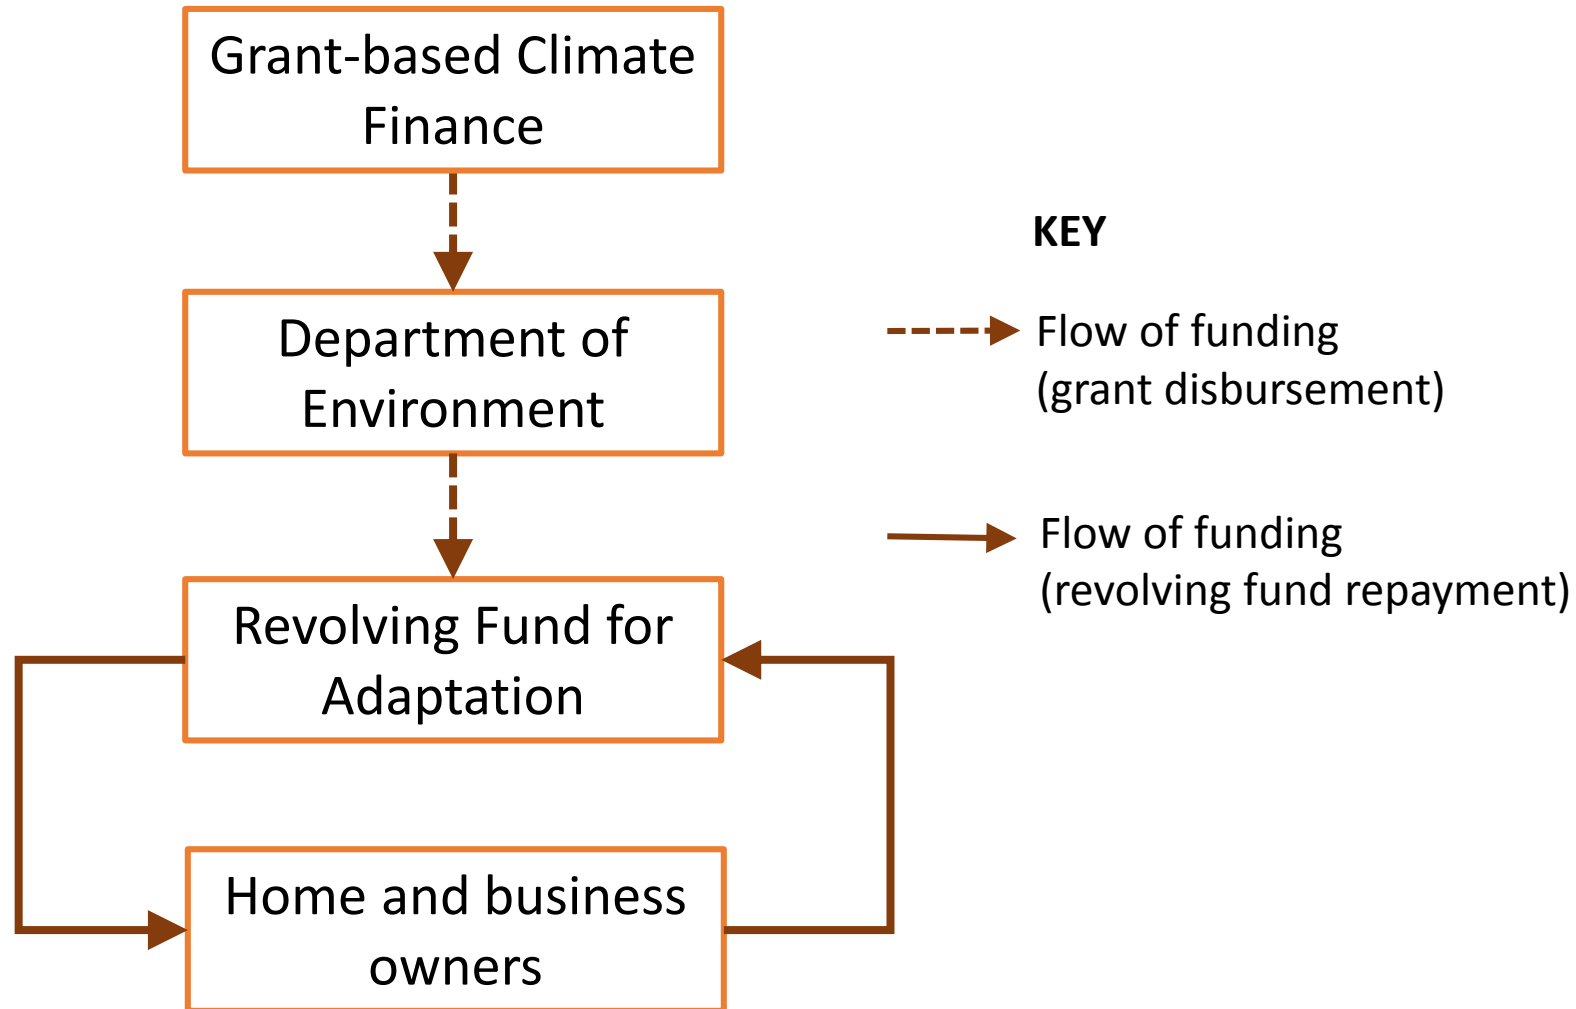

Extent to which Antiguan and Barbudans participate in the ownership of large scale Transformational enterprises

Competitiveness Conditions in the Utility Sector of days available water supply

Climate-proofing buildings

Blueprint for adapting road infrastructure: drainage and burying utility lines

Country-level biennial assessment

Country-level biennial assessment

Paris Agreement Article 2.1c

- How do we safeguard against reduced finance and investments in SIDS, as an unintended consequence of increased climate risk disclosure?
- What can be done through the climate change process including through Article 2.1.c to address those safeguards

DEPARTMENT of
ENVIRONMENT
Antigua and Barbuda

Contact

DOE@ab.gov.ag

www.environment.gov.ag

@AandBEnviron

facebook.com/AandBEnviron

Antigua Barbuda Dept of Environment

