

Fifth Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Mohamed Ibrahim Nasr Salem

COP27 Presidency lead negotiator

Ambassador Nasr is a career diplomat and climate negotiator, with an engineering background. He has served in different overseas and main office postings which involved communications between Egyptian and local or international /multilateral officials, it also included participation in national policies and multilateral strategic planning of a myriad of issues.

Currently Ambassador Nasr is the lead negotiator for climate change presidency team for COP27, and director of climate, environment and sustainable development department in the Egyptian Ministry of foreign Affairs, he is member of the senior management unit for organizing and managing COP27. Prior to his current role, he served as Ambassador to Somalia from 2019-2021, and Counsellor at the Mission of Egypt in Geneva responsible for the development portfolio, he served in Egyptian missions and embassies in Australia and Togo.

Ambassador Nasr was the chair of the African Group of Negotiators AGN 2018-2019 and has been coordinating the AGN Finance negotiating team under the UNFCCC process since 2010, he also serves as adviser to Green Climate Fund African board members. He was also a member of the Official Egyptian delegation to the meetings of the African Ministers Responsible for the Environment AMCEN, and the African Heads of States responsible for climate change CAHOSCC, he was involved in the processes of establishing the African renewable energy initiative AREI and the Africa Adaptation initiative AAI. Additionally, he served as Member of the Compliance Committee under the Kyoto Protocol 2010-2014, he also served as member of Egyptian official delegations to WMO, UNDRR, WTO, BRS Conventions, UNEA, INC for Plastics and UNCTAD among others.

Photo Credit: Mohamed Ibrahim Nasr Salem