Supporting NGCCFPs to Develop Terms of Reference

TARA DANIEL

SENIOR PROGRAM MANAGER

WOMEN'S ENVIRONMENT AND DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION (WEDO)

TAILORED COLLABORATION PROCESS

Collaborating with four countries with appointed NGCCFPs

Democratic Republic of the Congo, Haiti, Liberia, and Senegal

Working directly with NGCCFPs and their ministries to understand institutional
arrangements and key priorities

PILOTING A METHODOLOGY WITH MULTI-STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Convening stakeholder dialogues

- Bringing together stakeholders who may not have been convened before
- Using the opportunity to articulate gender and climate interlinkages and policy/program frameworks specific to country (led by NGCCFP)
- Presenting the history of gender within the UNFCCC and the NGCCFP role
- Host a dialogue on opportunities, directions, and strategic entry points for the NGCCFP role, with reference to a ToR in development
- Establish momentum for continued communication and potential coordination among this group of stakeholders

EMERGING INSIGHTS AND ENABLING FACTORS

Emerging Insights

- Institutional arrangements matter.
- The NGCCFP role exists outside of one individual.
- Party priorities shape the Terms of Reference.
- Terms of Reference are not workplans.

Enabling Factors

- Party support and enthusiasm for elaborating the role
- NGCCFP understanding of the UNFCCC and potential activities/responsibilities to support implementation of the Paris Agreement and GAP
- Institutional landscape that values gender-responsive planning & policymaking
