THE MUTIRÃO-BURKINDI COALITION ON CAPACITY-BUILDING INITIATIVE

Contributing to the Baku to Bélém Roadmap $1.3Tr/year by 2035 resource mobilization

Capacity building providers, businesses and trade partnerships will drive the change to a low carbon economy . At COP30 the COP30 Presidency has announced The Mutirão and Burkindi Coalition Capacity Building Initiative, developed in collaboration between the COP30 Presidency including the troika COP28 – COP29, and the H.R.H. Princess Abze Djigma Foundation. And the initiative has been adopted by COP30 capacity building matters.

The Mutirão and Burkindi Coalition Capacity Building Initiative delivers through two integrated tracks: Adaptation and the Just Transition Work Program. and contributes to achieving the Paris Climate Targets and the Sustainable Development Goals by connecting the minds, people, and solutions, to eradicating poverty for resilient communities.

The core value is Resource Mobilisation and Capacity Building by leveraging on the diaspora experience and networks, local experts, African-descendant's experts/leaders, and the network of networks of African Royal House for SDGs. Mobilizing a catalytic accessible fund of 1 billion USD contributing to the rollout of programmatic projects and activities disseminated by country locally lead platforms for climate action.

The Mutirão and Burkindi Coalition is committed to deliver in line with the PCCB Annual focus area with the MAMA-LIGHT® RIRE (Renforcement de l'Investissement pour la Résilience des Écoliers). "The MAMA-LIGHT® - RIRE PROJECT Project with track record in Burkina Faso for shared prosperity, security and stability in LDCs and LLDCs".
