Ms. Priscilla Negreiros
Climate Policy Initiative

Ms. Priscilla Negreiros is a Project Manager at Climate Policy Initiative, based in London. At CPI, she manages the Cities Climate Finance Alliance (CCFLA), which is a platform for cooperation, partnerships, and advocacy in the field of subnational climate finance.

CCFLA works to ensure that finance will be deployed at scale for city-level climate action by 2030, by focusing on establishing a bridge between demand and supply for city-level climate-related finance with cities, national governments, DFIs, and private investors.

Before CPI, Priscilla worked for the Brazilian government at Apex-Brasil as the Head of the Advocacy Unit, conducting outreach strategies to assist the Brazilian private sector to monitor and advocate against trade barriers. She has also served as a consultant to the UK Foreign and Commonwealth Office, and World Trade Organization, among others, assisting international trade and development projects on private sector development, investment promotion, and economic growth.

Priscilla holds a Master's Degree from SciencesPo Paris in International Public Management and a double B.A. degree from Pontificia Universidade Católica de São Paulo and SciencesPo Paris in International Affairs.
