Re: Your letter to the Supervisory Body dated 29 April 2026

Dear Ms. Djigme
Dear Ms. Schneider,

On behalf of the Supervisory Body, we thank you for your letter of 29 April 2026, which has been made available to the Article 6.4 Supervisory Body in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Procedure: Direct communication with stakeholders.

We appreciate the sharing of the updated 2026 workplan of the Paris Committee on Capacity-building (PCCB) as well as the overview of the upcoming opportunities for engagement. We take note of the planned activities for 2026, which present concrete opportunities for the Body to contribute to the work of the PCCB. In this regard, the Supervisory Body will provide targeted inputs, as appropriate, to relevant PCCB activities throughout the year.

We would also like to take this opportunity to kindly inform you that the Supervisory Body has adopted its workplan for 2026<sup>1</sup>, which reflects its strategic priorities and sets out a structured pathway for delivering on its mandates from the CMA.

The Supervisory Body looks forward to working closely with the PCCB in advancing our shared objectives of strengthening global climate action.

Thank you for contacting the Body.

Yours sincerely,

James Grabert

Secretary to the Article 6.4 Supervisory Body
