Re: Your letter to the Supervisory Body dated 11 March 2026

Dear Ms. Pereira,
Dear Ms. Noens,

On behalf of the Supervisory Body, we thank you for your letter of 11 March 2026, which has been made available to the Article 6.4 Supervisory Body in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Procedure: Direct communication with stakeholders.

We also extend our congratulations on your election as Co-Chairs of the Standing Committee on Finance and look forward to continuing the constructive engagement between our bodies on climate finance-related matters.

We appreciate the sharing of the updated 2026 workplan of the Standing Committee on Finance and the overview of the upcoming opportunities for engagement with the Article 6.4 Supervisory Body. We take note of the planned activities for this year, including the respective timelines for submissions and calls for evidence. In this regard, the Supervisory Body will provide targeted inputs, as appropriate, to relevant SCF workstreams outlined in your letter.

We would also like to take this opportunity to kindly inform you that the Supervisory Body has adopted its workplan for 2026¹, which reflects its strategic priorities and sets out a structured pathway for delivering on its mandates from the CMA.

We further welcome the nomination of Ms. Diann Black-Layne and Mr. Martin Stadelmann as focal points on mitigation-related matters, and we look forward to engaging with them throughout the year.

We look forward to working closely with the SCF to advance our shared objectives in advancing global climate action and thank you once again for your continued engagement.

Thank you for contacting the Body.

Yours sincerely,

James Grabert

Secretary to the Article 6.4 Supervisory Body
