SBI 59 agenda item 19
Matters relating to Action for Climate Empowerment

Version 2/12/2023 19:30

1. The Subsidiary Body for Implementation (SBI) welcomed the 2023 Dialogue on Action for Climate Empowerment (ACE),¹ which was held at its fifty-eighth session and focused on the priority area of the Glasgow work programme on Action for Climate Empowerment² of monitoring, evaluation and reporting of ACE implementation. The SBI noted with appreciation the submissions from Parties and other stakeholders,³ which helped to shape the agenda for and interactive format of the Dialogue.
2. The SBI concluded that the 2024, 2025 and 2026 ACE Dialogues will focus on the priority area of tools and support, the priority areas of policy coherence and coordinated action, and the midterm review of progress under the Glasgow work programme respectively.
3. The SBI noted with appreciation the annual summary report prepared by the secretariat on progress in implementing activities under the Glasgow work programme⁴ and the range of activities carried out by the secretariat in relation to implementing the Glasgow work programme and its action plan.⁵
4. The SBI invited Parties and other stakeholders to make use of the information in the annual summary report, especially in relation to the area of focus of the 2023 ACE Dialogue, as appropriate, and to continue developing and sharing information on tools and resources in order to further support monitoring, evaluation and reporting of ACE implementation at all levels.
5. The SBI encouraged Parties and other stakeholders to continue to submit via the submission portal⁶ views on future ACE Dialogues, including suggestions of potential speakers and contributors who will be participating in sessions of the subsidiary bodies, and inputs to future annual summary reports, including information on support needed for ACE implementation.
6. The SBI requested the secretariat to enhance its efforts to engage a wide range of Parties and non-Party stakeholders in delivering on mandated activities under the Glasgow work programme and its action plan.
