SPREP

Ms. Salome Tukuafu is the Strategic Partnerships and Donor Relations Adviser for the Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme (SPREP). In this role, she oversees SPREP's engagement with its donors and its function as an Accredited Entity to the Green Climate Fund, Adaptation Fund, and Fund for Responding to Loss and Damage. She works across SPREP's technical programmes to mobilize resources in support of SPREP's mandate in climate change, biodiversity and conservation, waste management and pollution across 21 Pacific Island countries and territories. In her current role, Salome provides technical advice to Pacific Small Islands Developing States on climate and environment finance, including support for negotiations under key multilateral processes including the UNFCCC, CBD, and the UN's Intergovernmental Negotiating Committee on plastics. She has over 15 years of experience in sustainable development across multiple sectors in the Pacific.
