

United Nations
Climate Change

First Workshop under the Sharm el-Sheikh Dialogue on Article 2, paragraph 1(c), of the Paris Agreement, and its complementarity with Article 9 of the Paris Agreement

Information about the resource persons

Sandra Guzmán Luna

Founder and General Director

Climate Finance Group for Latin America and the Caribbean (GLFAC)

Photo Credit: Sandra Guzmán Luna

Sandra Guzmán Luna is an international specialist in low carbon development and climate finance. She is the Founder and General Director of the Climate Finance Group for Latin America and the Caribbean.

She is the former General Director of Climate Change Policies at the Ministry of Environment and Natural Resources of Mexico. Sandra holds a PhD in Politics by the University of York in the United Kingdom, a master's degree on Environment Policy and Regulation at the London School of Economics and Political Sciences, a Diploma on Sustainable Finance at the University of Oxford and a Degree on International Relations by the National University of Mexico. She is the first Mexican of the Homeward Bound Project visiting Antarctica to document the impacts of climate change in the territory. She was awarded as the intellectual of the year in 2018 by the Marie Claire Magazine; and she was selected as one of the 34 global changemakers by the Chevening scholarships of the UK Government.