

First Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal

Information about the resource persons

©Photo by Silvia Kreibiehl

Silvia Kreibiehl is a Coordinating Lead Author for the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), WG III Investment and Finance. She led the Frankfurt School - UNEP Collaborating Centre for Climate & Sustainable Energy Finance at Frankfurt School of Finance & Management until the birth of her daughter in December 2018. Before joining the Centre Ms. Kreibiehl worked for Deutsche Bank for 17 years, with 10 years in corporate finance (Equity Capital Markets and Mergers&Acquisitions), in particular in the renewable energy sector. She also worked for 4 years on double bottom line investment opportunities and respective transaction structures in developing countries. She was the lead analyst at Deutsche Bank for the GET FiT concept and was responsible for DB's shareholding in the Desertec Industrial initiative.

Silvia Kreibiehl
IPCC/ Coordinating
Lead Author for the
Sixth Assessment
Report