

Tenth Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Sofía Vargas-Lozada
Advisor for Climate Finance and Nature Finance
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Colombia

Sofía Vargas-Lozada is one of AILAC's lead finance negotiators and is the advisor for climate and nature finance at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Colombia. She serves as Council Member to the Global Environmental Facility (GEF) for the Brasil, Colombia and Ecuador constituency. She participates in the national council that defines Colombia's strategy to the Green Climate Fund and was advisor to the Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Her professional experience has also focused on the fields of development finance and development cooperation at the national and multilateral levels. Ms. Vargas-Lozada holds a Master's Degree in International Development from Sciences Po, Paris, and two Bachelor's degrees, in Political Sciences and International Business Management, from the University of La Sabana in Colombia.