

Seventh Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Mahlet Eyassu Melkie

Senior Associate

Climate Finance Access Network (CFAN), RMI

Mahlet Eyassu Melkie, is a Senior Associate and thought leadership lead with the Climate Finance Access Network at RMI. She is serving as coordinator for the “informing the NCQG” project funded by the German government. Mahlet supports CFAN leadership in the development and execution of monitoring and evaluation frameworks and supports stakeholder engagement and management. Prior to joining RMI, Mahlet was working as a Climate Finance Policy Analyst at Climate Analytics for 8 years supporting Least Developed Countries in the UNFCCC and Green Climate Fund Board negotiations.