

Eighth Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Matheus Bastos

Lead Climate Finance Negotiator
Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brazil

Matheus Bastos is a Brazilian career diplomat working currently at the Permanent Mission of Brazil to the United Nations in New York. He is the Lead Climate Finance Negotiator of Brazil, and Climate Finance Coordinator of Argentina, Brazil and Uruguay to the UNFCCC and the Paris Agreement.

Mr. Bastos has vast experience in multilateral negotiations, including in the G20, UNEA (plastics), and the Basel, Rotterdam, Stockholm and Minamata Conventions.

Mr. Bastos holds an International Relations degree and a post-graduate degree in Public Policy from the University of Brasília, and is currently a PhD candidate in Sustainable Studies at the University of São Paulo.