

Eighth Technical Expert Dialogue under the Ad Hoc Work Programme on the New Collective Quantified Goal on Climate Finance

Information about the resource persons

Meenakshi Raman
Head of Programmes
Third World Network

Currently, Head of Programmes of the Third World Network (TWN), which is an independent non-profit international research and advocacy organisation involved in issues relating to sustainable development, environment and climate change, developing countries and North-South affairs. It is head-quartered in Penang, Malaysia.

Meena is also a practicing public interest lawyer; is an expert on climate change negotiations, having attended around 15 COPs and has co-authored a book published by TWN entitled 'A Clash of Climate Change Paradigms'.

She also served as the first active observer from developing countries on the Board of the Green Climate Fund from 2012-2015.