

Climate Dialogues

In-session workshop on Long-Term Climate Finance (Part I)

Information about the resource person

Ms. Tracy Carty

Senior Policy Adviser

Tracy Carty has over 15 years experience in the environment and development sectors, working mainly on climate change policy and politics. She is Senior Policy Adviser at Oxfam GB, where she leads UK advocacy on climate change, coordinates Oxfam International's advocacy around the UNFCCC negotiations, and regularly authors Oxfam publications on priority issues. Areas of focus and expertise include climate finance, adaptation, equity, climate impacts on food, hunger and development. Prior to joining Oxfam GB, Tracy was Head of Politics at Green Alliance, a leading UK think-tank, and early on in her career she worked in two UK government departments. She has a BA in Politics from the University of Nottingham, and an MSc with distinction in Environment, Science and Society from University College London.