The Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement,

Recalling decision 1/CMA.5,

Option 1 (no text)

Option 2

I. Enhancing action, support and international cooperation

- 1. Reaffirms its commitment to multilateralism, especially in the light of the progress that has been and still needs to be achieved in the implementation of the Paris Agreement, and highlights the importance of Parties' unity in the pursuit of efforts to achieve the purpose and long-term goals of the Paris Agreement;
- 2. Recognizes the importance of international collaboration for contributing to progress towards the goals of the Paris Agreement;
- 3. Recalls the outcomes of the first global stocktake with a view to enhancing action, support and international cooperation;
- 4. Expresses appreciation to the Heads of State and Government who participated in the Baku World Leaders Climate Action Summit for their support in enhancing and accelerating the implementation of climate action;
- 5. Reiterates that Parties should cooperate on promoting a supportive and open international economic system aimed at achieving sustainable economic growth and development in all countries and thus enabling them to better address climate change, noting that measures, including unilateral ones, taken to combat climate change should not constitute a means of arbitrary or unjustifiable discrimination or a disguised restriction on international trade;¹
- 6. Recalls that the relevant work programmes and constituted bodies under or serving the Paris Agreement were invited to integrate relevant outcomes of the first global stocktake in planning their future work, in line with their mandates, and encourages these work programmes and constituted bodies to consider, as appropriate, providing information on any work undertaken in this regard in their annual reports or other planned outputs;²
- 7. Emphasizes that integrated approaches to the provision of means of implementation climate finance, technology development and transfer, and capacity building are essential for effective climate action, recalling paragraph 8 of decision 1/CMA.5;
- 8. Welcomes with appreciation the work and efforts of the Presidencies of its fifth, sixth and seventh sessions ("Road map to Mission 1.5 Troika") towards significantly enhancing international cooperation and the international enabling environment to stimulate ambition in the next round of nationally determined contributions with a view to enhancing action and implementation over this critical decade and keeping the goal of limiting temperature increase to 1.5 °C within reach;

² Decision 1/CMA.5, para. 186.

- 9. Notes with alarm and serious concern the findings of the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change that human activities have unequivocally caused global warming of about 1.1 °C;
- 10. Reaffirms the Paris Agreement temperature goal of holding the increase in the global average temperature to well below 2 °C above pre-industrial levels and pursuing efforts to limit the temperature increase to 1.5 °C above pre-industrial levels, recognizing that this would significantly reduce the risks and impacts of climate change;
- 11. Underscores that the impacts of climate change will be much lower at the temperature increase of 1.5 °C compared with 2 °C and resolves to pursue efforts to limit the temperature increase to 1.5 °C;
- 12. Notes with concern the findings in the latest synthesis report on nationally determined contributions that implementation of current nationally determined contributions would reduce emissions on average by 2.6 per cent by 2030 compared with the 2019 level and that significantly greater emission reductions are required to achieve the Paris Agreement temperature goal and recognizes the urgent need to address this gap;
- 13. Resolves to accelerate efforts to achieving just transitions to net zero emissions by or around mid-century, taking into account different national circumstances on the basis of the best available science, reflecting equity and the principle of common but differentiated responsibilities and respective capabilities in the light of different national circumstances and in the context of sustainable development and efforts to eradicate poverty;
- 14. Recognizes the need for deep, rapid and sustained reductions in greenhouse gas emissions in line with 1.5 °C pathways and recalls its call on Parties to contribute to the global efforts, in paragraphs 28 and 33 of decision 1/CMA.5 in a nationally determined manner, taking into account the Paris Agreement and their different national circumstances, pathways and approaches;
- 15. Further reiterates that support shall be provided to developing country Parties for the implementation of Article 4 of the Paris Agreement, in accordance with Articles 9–11 of the Paris Agreement, recognizing that enhanced support for developing country Parties will allow for higher ambition in their actions;
- 16. Notes the findings of the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, that both adaptation and mitigation financing would need to increase manyfold, and that there is sufficient global capital to close the global investment gap but there are barriers to redirecting capital to climate action, and that Governments through public funding and clear signals to investors are key in reducing these barriers, and investors, central banks and financial regulators can also play their part;
- 17. Welcomes with appreciation efforts by Parties to communicate new nationally determined contributions, long-term low greenhouse gas emission development strategies and other actions that demonstrate progress towards achievement of the Paris Agreement temperature goal;
- 18. Recalls that pursuant to 1/CMA.5, paragraph 25, Parties shall submit to the secretariat their nationally determined contributions referred to in Article 4 of the Agreement at least 9 to 12 months in advance of the relevant session of the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement with a view to facilitating the clarity, transparency and understanding of these contributions, including through a synthesis report prepared by the secretariat;
- 19. Reaffirms the nationally determined nature of nationally determined contributions and Article 4, paragraph 4, of the Paris Agreement and encourages Parties to come forward in their next nationally determined contributions, to be submitted by 2025, with ambitious, economy-wide emission reduction targets, covering all greenhouse gases, sectors and categories and aligned with limiting global warming to 1.5 °C, as informed by the latest science, in the light of different national circumstances and informed by the outcome of the first global stocktake;

- 20. Underlines that just transitions can support more robust and equitable mitigation outcomes, with tailored approaches addressing different contexts;
- 21. Encourages Parties to align their nationally determined contributions with their long-term low-emission development strategies;
- 22. Urges Parties that have not yet done so and invites all other Parties to communicate or revise, by its seventh session (November 2025), their long-term low-emission development strategies towards achieving just transitions to net zero emissions by or around mid-century, taking into account different national circumstances;
- 23. Emphasizes the importance of the role and active engagement of non-Party stakeholders in supporting Parties in addressing climate change and urges Parties and non-Party stakeholders to continue collaborating to enhance climate action and accelerate implementation of the Convention and the Paris Agreement taking into account the outcomes of the first global stocktake;³
