

Sinéad MAGNER

Women and Gender Constituency

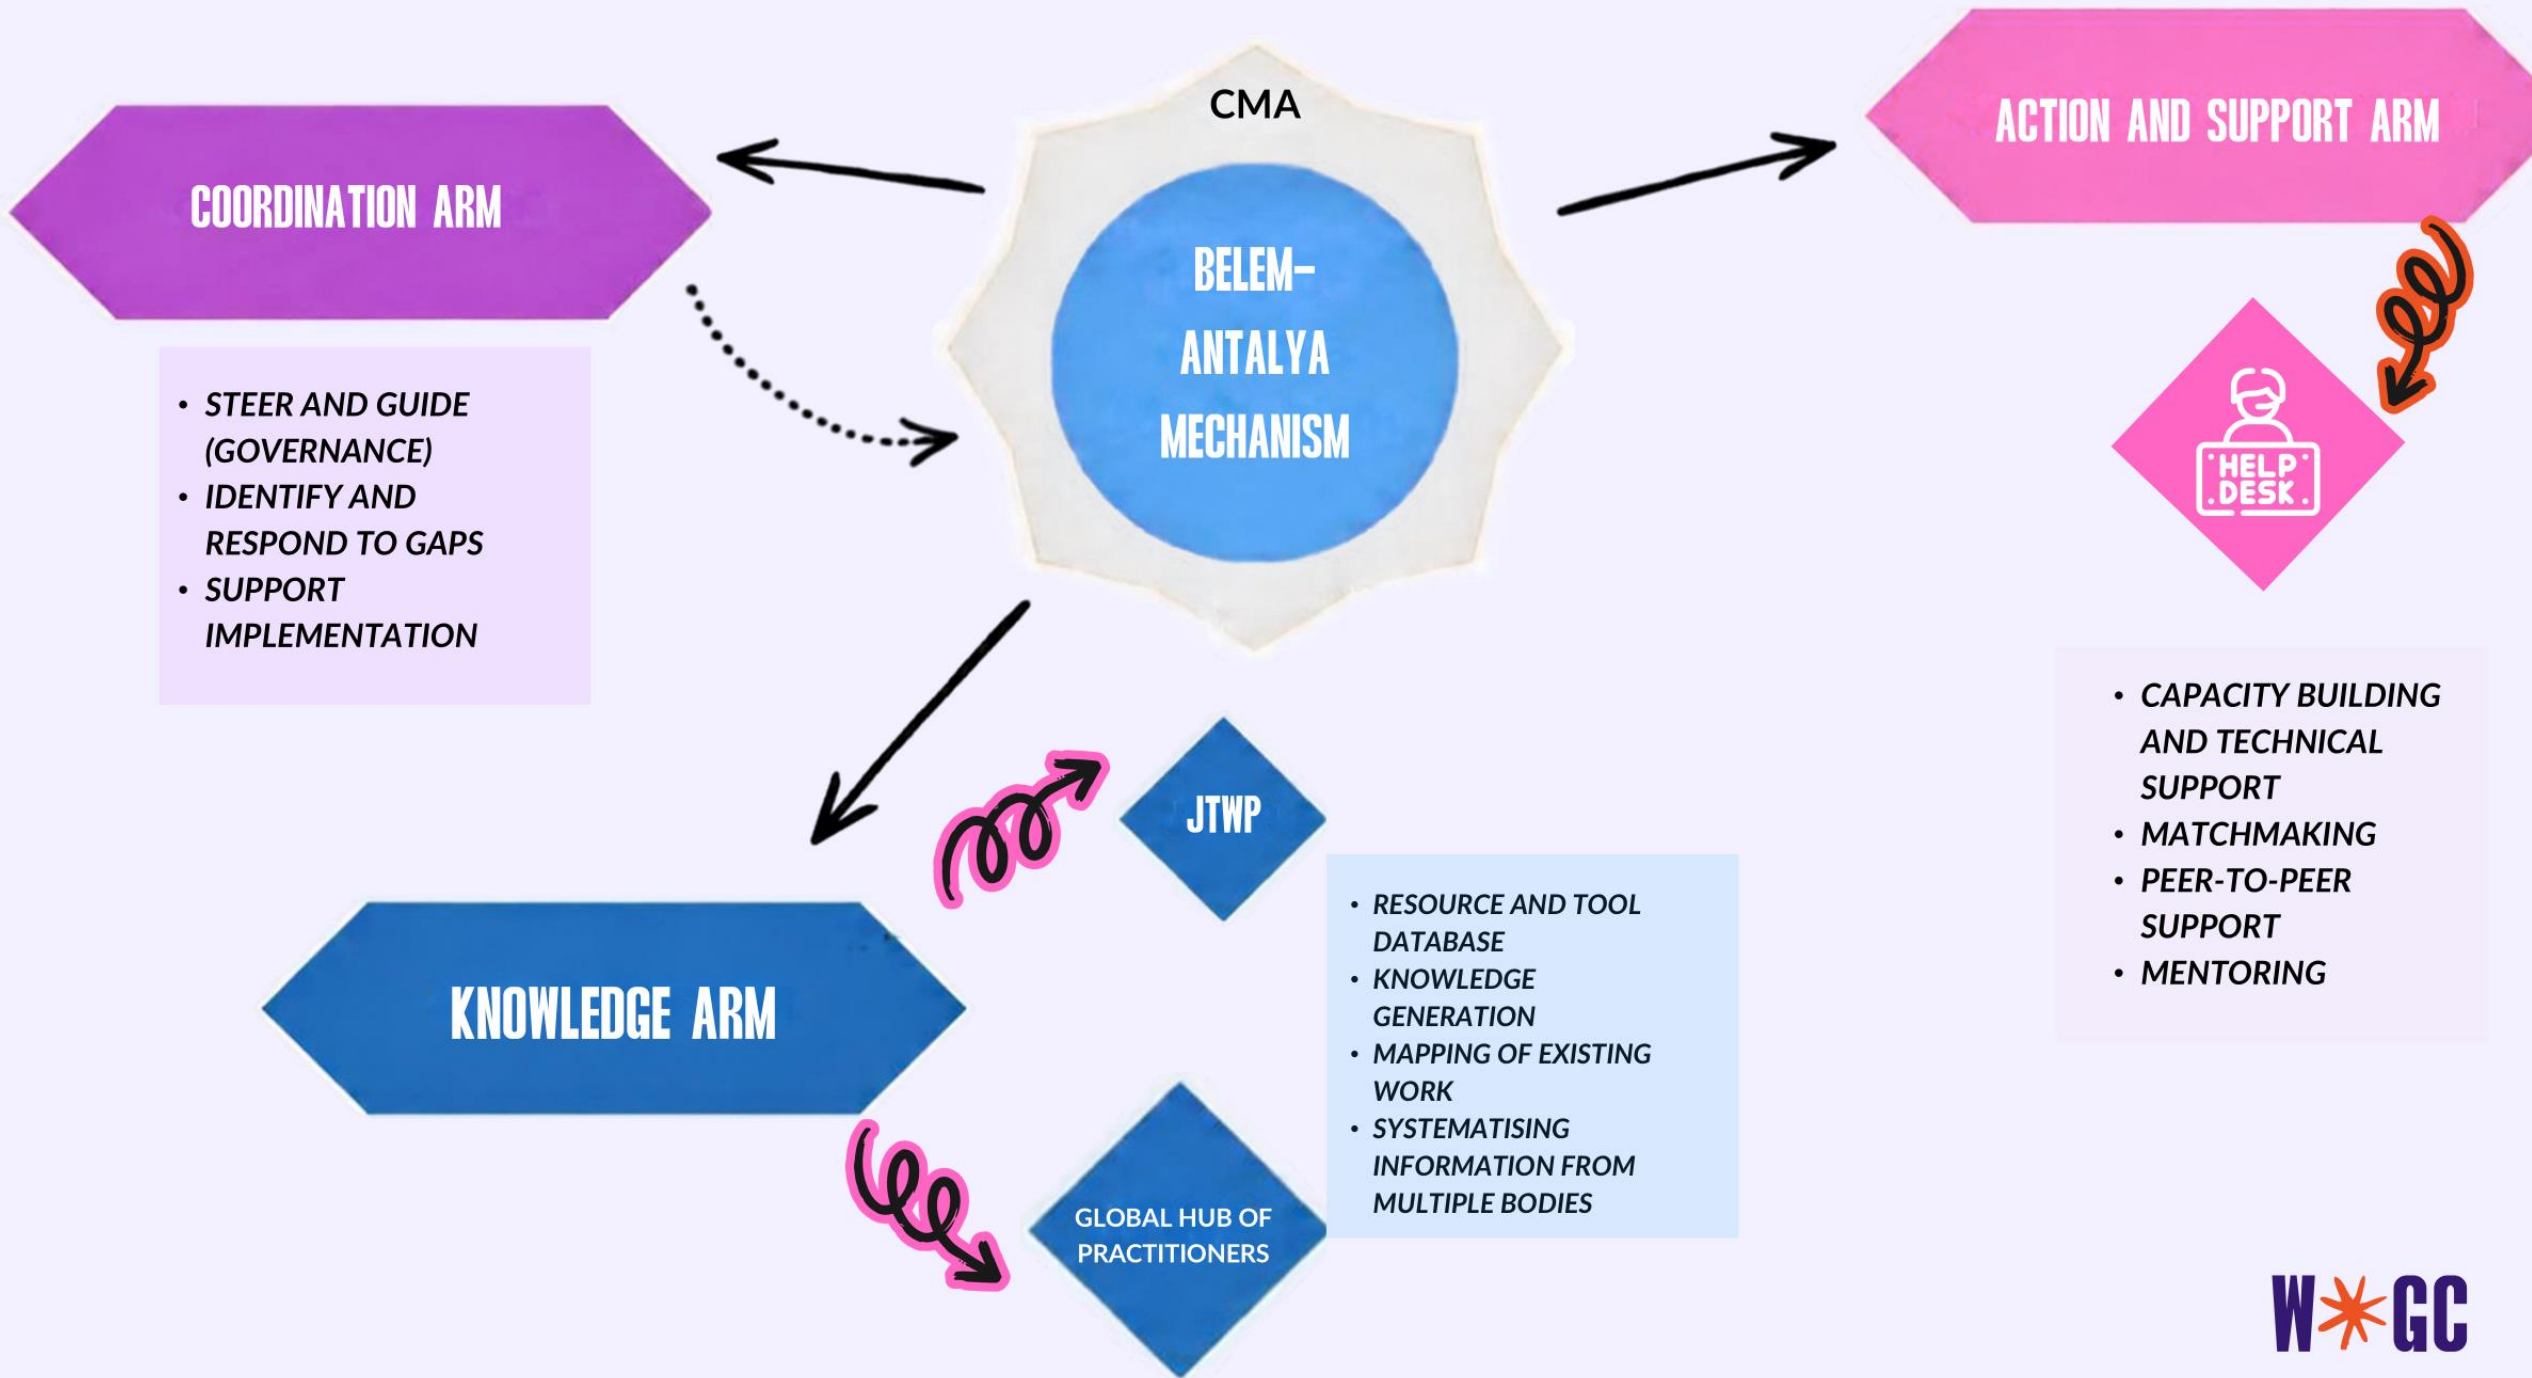

CORE ELEMENTS

To ensure effective, evidence-based and lived-experienced informed implementation, the mechanism should:

1. Operationalise the principles in paragraph 12 of decision 2/CMA.7 to guide how the mechanism delivers technical assistance, monitors implementation, and facilitates international cooperation
2. Include a Coordination and Coherence function
3. Include an Action and Support function including technical, financial, and capacity-building support, and facilitate international cooperation
4. Include a Knowledge Building function to systematize information from multiple bodies, identify commonalities and challenges, and build a library of principles, tools, best practices, and resources
5. Formally recognise peoples' participation, including a formal position for constituencies within the governance of the mechanism - moving beyond consultation toward structured, institutionalized, meaningful, and iterative participation

WGC RESOURCES – POSITIONS, PROPOSED DRAFT TEXT, LEGAL ADVICE AND MORE...

25. Decides to develop a just transition mechanism, the purpose of which will be to enhance international cooperation, technical assistance, capacity-building and knowledge-sharing, and enable equitable, inclusive just transitions, noting that the mechanism is to be implemented in a manner that builds on and complements relevant workstreams under the Convention and the Paris Agreement, including the work programme, and requests the

22. Recalls that scaling up new and additional grant-based, highly concessional finance and non-debt instruments remains critical to supporting developing countries, particularly as they transition in a just and equitable manner;

(d) The importance of ensuring broad and meaningful participation involving all relevant stakeholders, including workers affected by transitions, informal workers, people in

(e) The importance of meaningful and effective social dialogue with all social partners, respect for labour rights, and decent work and quality jobs for just transitions;

(i) The importance of the rights of Indigenous Peoples and of obtaining their free, prior and informed consent in accordance with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the importance of ensuring that all just transition pathways, social protection systems, and of consideration of the informal sector, the care economy, unemployed people and future workers for ensuring just transitions;