3. Expresses appreciation to the thematic expert groups of the Executive Committee of the Warsaw International Mechanism and the organizations, bodies, networks and experts engaged in providing technical assistance to developing countries through the Santiago network for averting, minimizing and addressing loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change for their progress in furthering the implementation of the functions of the Warsaw International Mechanism;
4. Recalls the recommendation² for Parties to establish a loss and damage contact point through their respective UNFCCC national focal point and the invitation³ for Parties to inform the Santiago network secretariat of their liaison to the Santiago network secretariat, as appropriate;
5. Requests the UNFCCC secretariat and the Santiago network secretariat to, as appropriate:

¹ Decision 2/CP.19, para. 5.

8. Encourages developing country Parties that are particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change to submit requests for technical assistance to the Santiago network in a nationally determined manner;

9. Reiterates its invitation⁴ to the Advisory Board of the Santiago network to provide guidance to the Santiago network secretariat on developing guidelines and procedures for enabling access to and assisting in preparing requests for technical assistance that recognize the significant capacity constraints of the least developed countries and small island developing States;

10. Recalls that the Santiago network secretariat will have a lean, cost-efficient organizational structure, led by a director who will manage a small core team of professional and administrative staff, in order to meet its responsibilities and perform its functions efficiently and effectively;⁵

11. Requests the Santiago network to ensure that technical assistance funded directly by the Santiago network is made available to communities particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change, including through levels of minimum percentage of technical assistance funded directly by the Santiago network directed to communities particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change;

12. Recalls that the Santiago network secretariat will commission one independent review of the performance of the Santiago network, including sustainability and sources of funding, adequacy of funding levels relative to technical assistance requests, timeliness, effectiveness, engagement, gender-responsiveness and delivery of technical assistance to communities particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change, in a timely manner so that the findings of this review can feed into the subsequent review of the Warsaw International Mechanism, for determining the need for further independent reviews of the performance of the Santiago network;⁶

13. Requests the Executive Committee of the Warsaw International Mechanism to:

(a) Include activities in the upcoming plan of action of the expert group on action and support that inform the Executive Committee's work in assisting developing countries that are particularly vulnerable to the adverse effects of climate change in better accessing technical assistance and finance for responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change;
